Accidentally Shoots and Kills Lady In Opposite Apartment House

Chicago, Jan. 31.-George Busse brother of Fred A. Busse, mayor of Chicago, tonight accidentally shot and killed Mrs. L. C. Tuckerman, thirtytwo years old, of New York City.

The shooting occurred in the Walton apartment building, 305 North Clark street. Mrs. Tuckerman was visiting her fatner, General A. C. Girard, retired, who occupied an apartment in the biulding.

George Busse, in his apartment across the areaway from the Girards. was demonstrating the use of a revolver to Bertha Lambke, his housemaid, so that she could use the weapon in case of burglars. Suddenly the evolver was discharged, and the bullet went through two windows, into the Girard apartment and pierced Mrs. Tuckerman's heart.

Mayor Busse was present and as oon as he learned of the fatal consequences notified the police. According to the statements made to the police, George Busse was about to leave for Cincinnati on a business trip. He did not care to leave his mother and the maid at home alone without some means of protection. He there-fore purchased a revolver and was instructing the maid how to use it, when the trigger was pulled accidentally. Mrs. Tuckerman was in a bedroom dressing. When struck by the bullet she staggered into a hallway. General Girard and Mrs. Tuckerman's fiverear-old son, Alfred, rushed from an adjoining room.

"Oh. father, I've been shot and am lying," said Mrs. Tuckerman, and expired. A moment later there was a ounding at the door of the Girard apartment and Mayor Busse and his rother, George, came in.

Mayor Busse's wife and mother fo owed. The mayor summoned a physician and notified the police by telephone, but the woman died before the physician arrived. No arrests were made, General Girard expressing himself as satisfied that the shooting was purely accidental.

OPPOSITION TO MAJOR BREEDEN. Action on Appointment of Judge.

appointment of a judge of the juvenile court has been delayed indefinitely because of the fact that the members of the commission have been unable to agree upon any person for the place. The postponement of action was largey due to the influence of a number of club women, who, influenced solely by the desire that the position go to a ca-pable person who would be an influ-nce for good with the juvenile offend-

M. A. Breeden to this position. The juvenile court commission is composed of Governor Spry, Attorney General Barnes, and State Superinten dent of Schools Nelson. Attorney General Barnes is urging the appointment of Major Breeden, while neither of the other members has expressed a preference. Until the intervention of the women's clubs Major Breeden was apparently in the lead. There are a num-ber of other candidates for the position, any one of whom, it is said, would tion is due to the fact that he has been a public officeholder and needs to coninue as such. He was atttorney gen eral eight years, and at the last republican state convention was the de-feated candidate for the nomination for justice of the supreme court. Attorney General Barnes formerly was a deputy in the office of Major Breeden when the latter was attorney general and is repaying his debt by Breeden's appointment to the position of judge of the juvenile court.

FORMER SALT LAKE MAN CUTS THROAT AND DIES.

Landry A. Burns Ends His Life Sen sationally After Illness Due to Overwork.

Salt Lake, Jan. 31.-Landry A. Burns, a former letter carrier at the local post office, committed suicide in San Francisco several days ago by cutting his troat with a razor, is the news received here yesterday. The act was committed while he was in a demented condition, brought about by long sickness and overwork. Burns was twenty-eight years old and lived in Salt Lake until about a year ago, when he was transferred to the post office in San Francisco. For several weeks Burns had been confined to his home by sickness due to overwork. Monday afternoon he called his wife into the room where he was resting and told her he wanted some dates. Mrs. Burns left the house with the intention of going to a nearby store to get the dates. As she left, he called her, telling her not to lock the door. When she reached the front gate she heard the door close and heard her husband lock it. Mrs. Burns ran back to the house and was forced to break in the door before she could enter. She found Mr. Burns lying on the bed with his throat cut and beyond medical aid.

LAS VEGAS GETS RAILROAD SHOPS.

Plans of Salt Lake Route Call For Expenditure of a Half Million.

Salt Lake, Jan. 31.-Within the next sixty days the Salt Lake route will have located its general machine and repair shops at Las Vegas, Nev., and the construction of the new buildings will amount to more than $300,000. The buildings, machinery and equipment of the shops will furnish employment for 400 men, and by the time the plans are worked out, equipment installed, the cost is expected to reach between $500,000 and $600,000.

TWO SALT COMPANIES ARE INCORPORATED.

Salt Lake, Jan. 31,-Two salt companies filed articles of incorporation almost simultaneously Saturday. One of these is the Saltair Salt company, which has a capital of $25,000 in one dollar shares, of which 12,999 shares are treasury stock. This company takes over the refinery plant at Ninth South and Third West streets for $12. 001. The officers are George W. Goddard, president; Ben L. Rich, vice president; John H. Barnhart, secretary and treasurer; and these, with Bertha L. Goddard and Anna C. Rich, constitute the directorate. The other company will be known as the Vacuum Salt company and will have a capital of $20,000 in shares of the par value of 50 cents each. Winwood is president; A. A. Rummel, vice president; H. O. Enger, secretary and treasurer, and these, with Milliam Milne and B. G. Call, are the directors. The company takes over a lease from the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad company to A. A. Rummel of land at Lake Point, in Tooele During the first week of the present | county, and the business conducted by Rummel as the Vacuum Salt company

Money-Making Ways of Using Want Ads

To Get an Employe

Serious business-this hunt for capable men and women. Some consider it trifling. But it has been worth the while of a Field, a Ward, a Swift, a Wanamaker-it is worth your while. Wise organization spells "Success." "Pick" your employes-the ones that bring in the dollars. Make it one of your habits to run over daily, the "Situation Wanted" ads on our Classified page. Or, better still, when you want a particular employe, write a little Want Ad, stating just what you want and insert it under the heading "Help Wanted." And the results come to you in your private office—away from the crowd of the unemployed. The cost is but a few pennies. Think of it.
